Meeting minutes of July 12 were approved

Unfinished business:

- Metro Matters:
 1. Bette has written two articles concerning golf ball damage.
 2. Van is still working on real estate site and should be ready by Jan 2012.
 3. Bev Brown, the Neighborhood Watch Coordinator is writing a column on safety

New Business:

- Budget for HRCA for 2012 to be given to the Metro Board is as follows: Communications: The Metro Matters has been reduced from 24 to 16 pages to reduce cost of $400.00 per month
- A campaign is in progress to encourage on line subscriptions as an alternative to mailed subscriptions.
- Website management cost to be shared with UAHR

Social functions: This item in budget to be put on hold until spring pending Metro District decisions.

Special programs and Projects:

- Friends of the Fairway: Much discussion on this program and again decided to put on hold until we know more about Metro District decisions. One choice could be to acknowledge participants and have pictures featured in in Metro Matters. in lieu of monetary rewards.
- Projects: An idea was given about having a recycle day for community of chemicals or electronics.
- Community Educational and Informational Speakers funding will not be requested for 2012.
